

PHILIPPI

Explore ancient sites such as Kavala and Philippi where Paul preached his first sermon in Europe (Acts 16:13-15) and baptized the first Christian convert in the continent, a "certain woman named Lydia." The Philippian church became one of Paul's favorite congregations.

DELPHI

Discover the ancient ruins of Delphi and the museum, whose impressive collection includes an inscription concerning Governor Gallio (Acts 18:12).

THESSALONIKI TOWER

In Thessalonica, Paul established a church (Acts 17:1-9) to whom he wrote two letters (1 & 2 Thessalonians). At the Roman Agora (marketplace), a mob formed against Paul, and an ensuing riot started (Acts 17:5).

MARS HILL

Here, you'll see Mars Hill, where Paul addressed the city leaders (Acts 17:19-33). See also the Parthenon, the Stoa of Attalos, the Theater of Dionysus, the Odeon of Herodes Atticus, the Temple of Hephaestus, the Arch of Hadrian and the Temple of Olympian Zeus.

ROMAN ODEUM OF NICOPOLIS

Paul probably stopped here after sailing from Illyricum (Rom 15:19) and later spent the winter in Nicopolis (1 Tim 3:12).

TEMPLE OF APOLLO

Extensive ruins of Corinth are visible today, including temples, water fountains, shops, the largest Agora ("Marketplace") in the ancient world and the Bema, where Paul likely met before the governor Gallio (Acts 18:12-17).
